The week of Monday 27th October to Thursday 30th October there will be no weekday Masses in either Parish. This is because Fr Patrick is on leave and Fr Anthony is attending the ADF Chaplain's Retreat. In lieu of Mass there will be Liturgies of the Word with Holy Communion.

NOVEMBER MONTH OF THE HOLY SOULS

In November we remember our deceased loved ones in Mass. To have a Mass offered for someone dear to you, please print clearly on the envelopes provided so we can enter them accurately into the Books of Remembrance. Envelopes are ‘available from both churches or from the Parish office. Envelopes are also available inside the Planned Giving Boxes. May the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace.

The month of November reminds us of our need to pray for our loved ones (parents, family & friends) who have gone before us.
“Life is changed & not ended”
is a truth always spoken of at a funeral.
The sadness of our loss is tempered by Christian hope & joy. St Mary of the Cross MacKillop said “ We are but travellers on the journey to our true home with God in Heaven”. Fr Anthony & myself will be offering all the Masses in November for the Holy Souls & your departed family & friends. May they Rest in Peace.

30TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME YEAR C

First Reading: A reading from the book of Ecclesiasticus.

The Lord is a judge who is no respecter of personages. He shows no respect of personages to the detriment of a poor man, he listens to the plea of the injured party. He does not ignore the orphan's supplication, nor the widow's as she pours out her story. The man who with his whole heart serves God will be accepted, his petitions will carry to the clouds. The humble man's prayer pierces the clouds, until it arrives, he is inconsolable nor will he desist until the Most High takes notice of him, acquits the virtuous and delivers judgement. And the Lord will not be slow, nor will he be dilatory on their behalf.

Responsorial Psalm: The Lord hears the cry of the poor.

Second Reading: A reading from the second letter of St Paul to Timothy.

My life is already being poured away as a libation, and the time has come for me to be gone. I have fought the good fight to the end; I have run the race to the finish; I have kept the faith; all there is to come now is the crown of righteousness reserved for me, which the Lord, the righteous judge, will give to me on that Day; and not only to me but to all those who have longed for his Appearing. The first time I had to present my defence, there was not a single witness to support me. Every one of them deserted me – may they not be held accountable for it. But the Lord stood by me and gave me power, so that through me the whole message might be proclaimed for all the pagans to hear; and so, I was rescued from the lion's mouth. The Lord will rescue me from all evil attempts on me and bring me safely to his heavenly kingdom. To him be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia! God was in Christ, to reconcile the world to himself; and the Good News of reconciliation he has entrusted to us. Alleluia!

Gospel: A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke.

Jesus spoke the following parable to some people who prided themselves on being virtuous and despised everyone else, 'Two men went up to the Temple to pray, one a Pharisee, the other a tax collector. The Pharisee stood there and said this prayer to himself, "I thank you, God, that I am not grasping, unjust, adulterous like the rest of mankind, and particularly that I am not like this tax collector here. I fast twice a week; I pay tithes on all I get." The tax collector stood some distance away, not daring even to raise his eyes to heaven; but he beat his breast and said, "God, be merciful to me, a sinner." This man, I tell you, went home again at rights with God; the other did not. For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, but the man who humbles himself will be exalted.'

Communion Antiphon:

Christ loved us and gave himself up for us, as a fragrant offering to God.

HEAR FROM POPE LEO XIV Sunday Echo is a limited-release resource the Diocese has developed that contains, where available, the Holy Father's most recent homily or reflection and accompanying discussion questions in the familiar Faith Circles format that many people in the Diocese already use each week. Each issue will be released the day after Pope Leo XIV gives a homily on the most recent Sunday Gospel readings or go to <https://www.dow.org.au/media-resources/faith-circles/> to access or sign up to have sent straight to you.
